

Louisville Public Library Foundation

Helping to Build a Healthy Community

"Thank you for the incredible programs you offer for children and young adults. What a treasure for our community! You are inspiring and motivating children and teens to do more reading, writing, art and science!"

"The kiddos loved this program, can't wait to do it again next summer."

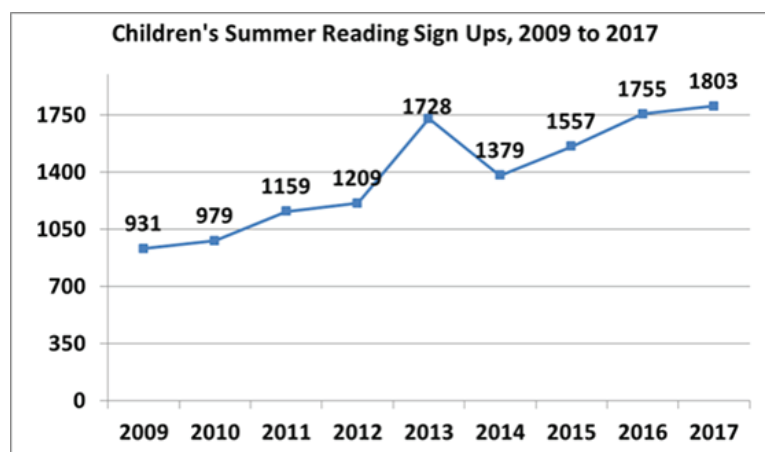

"Loved the reading program. Gets kids excited about reading and the library events were wonderful."

"Keep it up. We love the Summer Reading Program and all the events at the Library."

The Louisville Public Library Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, community-based organization. Each year, the Foundation raises money to buy books and other library materials and supports thought-provoking and entertaining programming for all ages.

The Louisville Public Library has experienced tremendous growth in the 11 years that it's been in its current building, and it continues to serve as a vital cornerstone of the community.

Donations to the Library Foundation support

- Program costs and books for 'On The Same Page,' the annual Superior/Louisville/Lafayette One-Book program
- The aquarium in the Children's area
- Free books for each finisher in the Summer Reading Program
- Makerspace supplies and programs

Your tax-deductible donations are always appreciated. You can give to the general fund or specify a particular project or event to support such as children's programming, Read Baby Read, Makerspace and more.

"Gently used books are gladly accepted for our book sales area."

All book sales benefit the Library Foundation!

Don't forget to check out the book sales area as we replenish books weekly.

Volunteer with the Library Foundation

If you love libraries, we'd love to have you volunteer! We offer many fun and rewarding opportunities for people of all ages and talents.

- Help with our book sales
- Support our Makerspace, On the Same Page, Read Baby Read, or Summer Reading programs

Your donations make a difference. Each gift will ensure that Louisville Library programs and resources will remain available to the residents of Louisville and Superior. A donation envelope is enclosed for your convenience, or you can also make your donation online at <http://louisvillelibraryfoundation.org>.
