

Safer at Home, Level Orange: High Risk

What does Level Orange mean for businesses?

Due to an increase in COVID-19 cases, Boulder County will move to Safer at Home Level Orange: High Risk on Friday (November 6). Level Orange: High Risk is a more restrictive level on the State's revised COVID-19 Dial, which was released alongside the new COVID-19 Dial Public Health Order on November 2.

What does Level Orange: High Risk mean for businesses?

Restaurants, non-critical retailers, personal services, and offices will need to limit their capacity to 25% (down from 50%).

Further details about Level Orange: High Risk, including what it means for organized events and places of worship, are available in the COVID-19 Dial Public Health Order and the Capacity Table (see reverse side for table). Visit the City's COVID-19 Business Resources website LouisvilleCO.gov/COVID19resources for links to documents and posters.
