

2024 Building Code Board of Appeals Supplemental Questions

Applicant Name:

The Building Code Board of Appeals (BCBOA) is a quasi-judicial board that hears and decides appeals of orders, decisions, or determinations made by building officials relative to the application of the building code.

- The BCBOA meets the third Thursday of each month at 6:30 pm, as needed.
- Terms are three years.
- You must be a resident of Louisville or have relevant professional/technical experience to serve.

1. Explain your interest on serving on the BCBOA?

2. Members of the BCBOA must be "qualified by experience and training to pass on matters pertaining to building construction," share the specific technical or professional skills you have?

3. What are some outreach ideas, if any, you have seen be successful in helping permit applicants find the information they need about codes?"

4. What specific experience have you had with Louisville or any other municipality's building code or enforcement department, including, but not limited to, your own personal building permit application?

Submit this questionnaire with your general application form by email to MeredythM@LouisvilleCO.gov or deliver it to City Hall, 749 Main Street. City Hall is open Monday – Thursday, 8 am – 4 pm.

Please contact Meredyth Muth at MeredythM@louisvilleco.gov or 303.335.4536 if you have questions or need assistance with language access resources or other accommodations.